NABAJYOTI AT A GLANCE

Nabajyoti College was established in the year 1971 with the objective of spreading Higher Education in the greater Kalgachia area which was mostly backward and socially under privileged. The Foundation Stone of the College was laid by Late Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed, the then honourable President of India. Starting with an enrolment of 35 students in its year of inception, the College today takes the pride of having over 2500 students and it serves as an indicator of the ladder of success and progress that the College has climbed over the years through its ceaseless stride. The College has its regular Courses in both Science and Arts at Higher Secondary and Under Graduate levels.

The College also introduces PGDCA course in the department of Computer Science this year under Gauhati University. In addition to this the College runs distance education in Under Graduate and Post Graduate levels through KKHSOU and IDOL (GU). With its ever growing infrastructure, soothing organizational climate the College focuses on effective Teaching Learning process which generates quality education to the learners.

This Unique platform of the College moulds the students to cope up with the emerging society of the Globe.

The Central Library

NABAJYOTI COLLEGE
PROSPECTUS
2023-24

The Central Library of Nabajyoti College was established with the inception of the College as its integral part. Since the beginning it has been maintaining growth and excellence and presently the Library is well equipped and enriched with 27,910 books. The Library is a registered member of the online database N-LIST under INFLIBNET Centre (Information and Library Network), Ahmedabad -IUC of UGC. Students are provided with a unique user name and password to access N-LIST, facilitated by the librarian. There are different sections inside the library viz. Reading Room Section, Stack Area Section, Periodical Section, Browsing Section and Reference Section etc. It provides a strong support in terms of library and information services to its user's fraternity within the campus. The library is open to the students, faculty and staff of the College. The library conducts user orientation programme for the new students every year to make them familiar with its resources.

Students Reading Room in Library

Participants of Children Corner in Central Library

The Central library has adopted the ILMS (SOUL 2.0) wherein the database of all the book collection is converted to computerized format. The library regularly updates the bibliographic data as per the standard format. The Central Library has installed the RFID gate to control the unauthorized movement of the books as RFID tags has been pasted in all the library books. Smart display has also been installed for displaying new arrivals and other information. RFID Attendance and Transaction System with RFID cards for the staff of the College is newly added to the Central Library and the same will be opened to the students very soon.

Institutional Repository of Central Library is linked to the college website: www.nabajyoticollege.ac.in. Students can access to the uploaded information, question paper etc from anywhere.

Children Corner: It is a programme initiated by the Central Library of the College to encourage and inculcate reading habits among school children of the nearby locality. Under this programme every month a group of students from a nearby school accompanied by teachers are invited to visit the Central Library wherein they are introduced to the Library and the plethora of book collection and their utility, usefulness, in the education system and how it is beneficial in their journey towards excellence. Till date 12 schools have participated and will continue in future.

Thought of the Day: As a part of Best Practices, the library also takes the privilege of displaying the quotes of great persons in the banner 'Thought of the Day' in front of the Administrative Building on daily basis.

CONFERENCE HALL

Say NO to ragging

ANTI-RAGGING- IS OUR PRINCIPLE

Ragging is defined by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in SLP No- 24295 dated 16-05-2007 and in Civil Appeal No- 887 of 2009 dated 08-05-2009 as "Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which cause or likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not do in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student."

Nabajyoti College, Kalgachia's Stand on Ragging:

Nabajyoti College, Kalgachia has implemented the recommendation of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in its Campus. Since Ragging is a Social Evil, all Stakeholders of the College have made a pledge to fight it and the College Campus is a Ragging free Zone. What Our Students Say.....

Masud Rabbani, BSc 6th Sem (Hons)

The teaching qualities are much better than I expected. Rules and regulations are strictly followed. We found variety of books in the Central Library and a friendly staff to deal with. I think none will disagree with me and everyone is happy.

Jesmina Khatun, BA 6th Sem (Reg)

I do have the experience of last three years I spent as a student of Nabajyoti College. So, I dare say that this College should be one of the best colleges of Assam. I personally feel very grateful studying here. Perhaps I can fulfil my dream and I can take off from here on.

Roksana Nasrin, BA 4th Sem (Hons)

The College has given us everything we need to build our career base. Employees are responsive, friendly and helpful. Course completion is guaranteed. Two years have spent; hope final year will be even better.

Runa Parbin, BA 2nd Sem (Hons)

Very nice experience. First I thought, I should have been somewhere else, after some time I realised that no, it is as good as top Colleges. I am glad and grateful especially to all my teachers. I like the discipline and sincerity so much.
