The initiative of Children Corner, by Central Library Nabajyoti College, Kalgachia, caters to the need to undertake the social responsibility of the college towards the school children of neighbouring schools. Students from nearby schools are invited by the Children Corner to attend the Children's Meet organized by the Central Library.

The evidence of the success of this practice is intangible and the outcome is qualitative. It is a long-term process and we are committed to our responsibility towards the nearby school children. We are hopeful that the seed of knowledge that the college is sowing on these children will bear fruits in the long run toward and brighter future.

Breaking Barriers: Empowering Women for a Brighter Tomorrow

Founded with a clear mission to uplift the marginalized, Nabajyoti College, Kalgachia, has broken through the shackles of tradition and prejudice to provide a nurturing environment for the holistic development of women. In a society where early marriage often cuts the educational aspirations of young girls, Nabajyoti College serves as a transformative force, offering a refuge where dreams can flourish and potential can be realized. By prioritizing the education of economically disadvantaged students and women, we have opened doors that were previously closed, paving the way for a brighter and more equitable future.
